

Shadow to Shadow.

For a long time it has seemed like there hasn't been any organisation or agency strong enough to stand up to the "shadow Government"-until (maybe) now.

The summer of 2007 Canadian born -Benjamin Fulford- delivered an Ultimatum to the Shadow Government in the form of an article written by Henry Makow and also on the Jeff Rense Radio show- (www.jeffrense.com) He has been living and working as a journalist in Japan for 20 years, speaks fluently Japanese and he has great insight into the socio-political situation in Japan.

Between 1998-2005 he was the Asian Pacific Bureau-Cheif of FORBES magazine.

As a man of strong principles he quit working for FORBES when he found out that they wouldn't print a story involving amoral acts of one of their sponsors.

He has since then written 15 books on Japanese of which the most recent one reveals 9/11 to be an inside job. According to Benjamin this is something people are beginning to realise both at a grassroot level but also among the political leaders in Japan.

Benjamin speaks about coming in contact with a Chinese Secret Society which are feed up with the Illuminati-shadow government (lead by the the illuminati familes of the Rockefellers and the Rothchilds) and their manipulations and murderous agendas.

As a spokesmen for this Chinese Society -Fulford strongly "recommends" or rather -demands- the leaders for this Shadow government to stop their war agendas and their plans of dessimating large parts of the population on the earth.

If this demand is not fulfilled this Chinese Secret Society may feel that they have to likvidate the highest public leaders of the shadow government-to strike the eye-as Benjamin puts it.

According to Fulford, the position of the Chinese Secret Society is that if the leaders of the Shadow Government are willing to sit down and negotiate and change their ways then they will not have to go to prison -they can keep their castles and their servants but they must stop their manipulation and their war agendas.

Fulford stresses that the Chinese Society he represents most of all wishes to have a peacefull solution but if the Illuminati Shadow government rejects negotiations and continues in their destructive behaviour then they don't see any choise then to take counter mezures.

One of the reasons why this Chinese Secret Society are acting so urgently according to Fullford is that they feel convinced that SARS was an artificially made virus that was -asian etno specific- In other words -a genuine attempt to greatly reduce the Asian Population with virus warfare.

Fulford says that the Rockefeller side of the Shadow Government has controlled and blackmailed Japan since WW2, He says that last year Japan gave the illuminati the staggering amount of 800 billion dollars, money which the Illuminati uses to create wars. Any Japanese Polititician who oposes this and refuses to be controlled- get's killed.

His sources claim over 200 Japanese Politicians and people of influence has been killed by Americans since WW2, some of wich are said to have been former primeministers like Tanaka, Takeshita, Ohira and Obuchi. His sources say that they where killed by a drug that makes the death look like an ordinary stroke.

Fulford claims that not only is he a spokesperson for this society he has also become a member and a leader – why and how he met up with and joined this society is an interesting story.

Fulford tells us that everything began when he was investgating a murder and corruption scandal involving David Rockefeller and the former Finance minister of Japan-Heizo Takenaka.

According to Fulford Heizo Takenaka is a protege of the infamous Henry Kissinger who in turn is an Agent of David Rockefeller.

Fulford confronted Heizo Takenaka in a Televised Interview with proof that he had sold out Japan's Finance system to a group of finance companies controlled by David Rockefeller-the next day Fulford says he was contacted by a professional Japanese assassin who threw a Freemason badge in front of him and said that he -Fulford- could continue exposing people and Haizo takenaka die at the age of 47 or join the freemasons and get previledges like becoming the next Minister of Finance in Japan.

Benjamin says that he then understood what happens when people come too close to the truth of what is going on, when it comes to a choice like that most people would probably choose to join-some more willingly than others- In this way the Illuminati Shadow Government get many of the smartest people on it's side.

Luckily a 3'rd alternative showed up.

The very next day he was contacted by a "gentleman"-as he himself put's it- who said that he was a representative from a Chinese Secret Society who knew that he had just been threatened but that they offered Fulford their protection.

The Alleged history of this Chinese Society.

After having met several members of this society and realised that he shares many of their values and their world views-he became not only their spokesperson to the western world but also a member and leader figure in this society.

According to Fulford this is an old secret society which can trace it's roots to the Ming Dynasty.

They are said to have called themselves "the green and Red Societies".

Fulford says that when the Manchu's invaded China in 1644 the Ming Army got betrayed by a border General-they then went underground and continued working in secret in their efforts of overthrowing the Qing (Manchu) and reinstall the Ming Dynasty. Among other things they supported the Boxer Rebellion which was put down by Imperial Forces.

Some time later they got help by Chinese abroad and the Imperial Family of Japan- eventually they where successfull in overthrowing the Last Emeror from the throne who they replaced with Sun Yat Sen.

In the 1940's they again show up in the history books but they then call themselves "the Green gang and the Red Gang"-this time they fought the Communists in Shanghai-who they got defeated by in 1949 -and they again went underground.

Since then it seems that they appear to have continued their work mostly from behind the curtains, but according to Fulford they have members very highly up in the Chinese Government.

Even though this Society has influence in the Government of China Fulford stresses that this Society is an Anti-Communist and Anti -etablissemangs society, They have "codes of Honor" he says that forbids the organisation to be used in a selfish manner, and it also says that they are to protect those that are weak, ect.

This society according to Fulford have 6 million members world wide, including 1.8 milion Asian gangsters (such as some of the Triads and some of the Yakuza) furthermore they are supposed to have 100.000 proffessional Assassins -some of which are westerners.

About 2/3'ds of this society are not gangsters or assassins but highly intellectual people who are university proffessors, scientists and bureaucrats.The Headquarter of this Society is in Taiwan- Fulford says.

The Answer. (is the shadow government using secret weapons to subdue Japan?)

It was Some time after he met with members of this Society that he showed up on Jeff Rense's Webb Radio show where he proclaimed the Ultimatum to the Illuminati.

After having appeared on that show and after having put up relating info on his website he heard from a high member of Japan's Security Police that they had got the information that as an answer to Fulford's appearance on renses.com there would be an earthquake in Niigata Prefecture.

Just some day's later ( 16 July-2007) there were earthquakes on two consecutive days near Japan's biggest Nuklear powerplant in Kashiwazaki-Kariwa, Niigata Prefecture.

The Epicentre was only 60 km off the coast between the mainland and Sado Island.

Thanks to an emergency auto-shut system there were only minimal damages according to official sources, however it was severe enough to close the Nuklear powerplant for a longer time. Apart from a minor fire the most serious thing that occurred was a leakage of radioactive water which was lead out to the sea according to procedures..but things could've turned very bad. If it is true that Benjamin was warned in advance by a high member of Japans Security Police then this seems to be a strong indication that what many already has claimed-that US military- (or in this case maybe a non official military fraction controlled by the Shadow Government) has access to wheather control tecnology.

Kashiwazaki-Kariwa Nuklear power plant.

This would be the ultimate intimidation and extorsion tool.

Some say HAARP is used for this purpose.

Few would expect any foul play since Japan has many Nuklear Power Plants next to high risk earthquake areas and furthermore earthquakes are naturally quite frequent in Japan.

Benjamin says that instead of revenge (which he thinks only would play the shadow government in their hands since they seem to always be looking for an excuse to launch a 3'rd World War.) Instead he has seen that Asian countries has begun dumping dollars-already for a long time

Asian countries are now getting tired of supporting and financeing the shadow government when it is only using the money for attacking other countries and creating excuses for war.

If as it seems the Shadow Government are using Secret warfare to blackmail Japan one can be pretty sure that they do the same with many other contries too, I would recommend such Countries and Governments who are experiencing such intimidation to come out publically with what is going on. It is much safer when disclosure takes place in groups rather then individually.

Negotiations?

On Benjamins homepage; www.benjaminfulford.com there is an article where Benjamin is saying that there has been some sort of negotiations with the shadow government and that they have promised to make big changes but that people need to be patient since it may take some time for this message to reach all the different fractions since it is such a compartmentalized organisation.

If this is just a way to win time or if it is sincere remains to see.....

When Benjamin was interviewed on rene.com he was of that opinion that it was the Rockefeller side of the shadow goverment that were the worst criminals but in a more recent interview with Alex Jones he has shifted his opinion to also include the Rothchilds who have their highseat in Europe and England.

Since the Rothchilds are more secretive it is plausible to assume that they sit higher up in the illuminati ladder than what the Rockefellers do -or maybe they are only shifting who will get to play bad guy/good Guy according to the situation.

Interesting Ancestry.

Benjamin says that he has a personal interest in seing a big change in the modus operandi of the Secret Government because he is convinced that his Great grandfather G.T. Fulford who was murdered by the Shadow Government.

At the time of his demise George Taylor Fulford was the biggest single shareholder in General Electrics and he was thinking of buying the company General Motors.

G.T Fulford died -1905- in the first officially reported caraccident in the history of Canada.

His driver who survived the "accident" had according to Wikipeda been forewarned a week in advance.

Benjamin believes that his great grandfather was killed because he was going to finance Nicola Tesla whom he was a friend and supporter of.

G.T.Fulford Wikipedia länk

Tesla's contributions to science were far reaching but he made a big mistake in letting the questionable and infamous international banker J.P. Morgan become his Financer, however it probably would'nt have made any difference since the US military and the Shadow Government would probably have made it's best in sabotaging some of his inventions either way.

There was a competition between a scientist in Europe (Marconi) and Tesla in America to see who first could transmit a wireless signal across the Atlantic Sea.

For this endeavour Tesla let build the Wardencliff Tower-but Tesla also had a secret plan for the

Wardencliff Tower

Wardencliff Tower-to not only transmit a signal but also power to give free-energy to all people on the planet.

When J.P. Morgan found out about this he withdrew his financial support since he found no way to make profits on a free energy system.

Because of this Marconi beat Tesla in the race to be the first to transmit a transatlantic wireless signal.

Sometime later Tesla publicly claimed that the Wardencliff Tower also could be used to modifying the weather. When the U.S military heard about this they confiscated the tower with the ludacris motivation that it might be a foreign spy technology installation. Before the military destroyed the tower with explosives they are said to have made a scalar wave test with it-In one area near the tower the fishermen complained that there were suddenly no fish any more-maybe because of this scalar wave test.

It is interesting to see how quickly the US.military acted as soon as they heard about weather modification technology, most probably the military already had some tecnology that could affect the weather and maybe they rebuilt Teslas tower away from the public eye.

The reason why they destroyed Teslas Tower so quickly was probably because they did'nt want any other country to have access to such technology, they wanted to be the only country which could use wheather modifications as warfare.

Instead they tried to get Tesla to invent things that they where interested in-especially tecnologies that could be used in warfare.

It is said that HAARP is a Tesla inspired network that uses extreme low frequency radiowaves in order to affect the environment.

I remember that in the gymnasium school books Tesla was only mentioned briefly ( not by chance i presume ) -I believe that in the near future Tesla will be acclaimed as one of our greatest scientists ever, even surpassing his contemporaries such as Albert Einstein, Isack Newton and Tom Edison.

He was a visionary scientist who realized the importance in including the Ether element into physics, many scientists of today have yet to realise this.

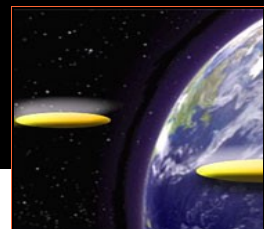

If the earthquake in Niigata Prefecture was artificially made and if HAARP was involved is too early to say, I am sure they have other weather control systems to choose from.

Benjamin said an interesting thing on the rensse interview - he described that people had seen a ball of light in the area shortly before the earthquake and that he even has this ball of light on film.

The near Future.

When it comes to what plans the shadow government has in store for humanity in the near future Fulford says he is wide open to all sorts of possibilites and scenareos.

One must expect the unexpected -it can be everything from a staged "Alien Invasion" to blowing up a Nuklear bomb on US Soil in order to win opinion ( similar tactics of 9/11 but much worse ).

many people may think that staging a Alien Invasion sounds very farfetched, but the shadow government probably has such capabilites-especially if the secret black budget space program is so advanced as many say it is.

A staged event like that could create the necessary fear and confusion that they would need to consolidate and centralize their "new world order" agenda.

Most members in the shadow government probably don't want to do evil things but they are afraid and know that they can be liquidated if they sway too much and don't follow the agenda.

There are many international groups and societies that actively work to create the "new world order" where the power elite meet and take decisions on our future, some of the more well known are; Council of Foreign Relations, Trilateral Commission and the Bilderbergers.

Sweden's own Prime Minister Fredrick Reinfeldt has been seen to partake in the Bilderberg meetings.

The higher levels of Freemasonry are also part of the shadow government.

According to Fulford there are 13 levels above the officially known 33 degrees, it is only those at the top of the freemasonry pyramid that knows the truth about plans of the shadow government.

Fulford has many reasonable and creative solutions on how the state of our world quickly could turn and become more positive. -for example he says that if the American military and especially powerful organisations like the Pentagon would realize that they would do better in helping the earth and it's population instead of helping the shadow government in their plans to disseminate the population by creating wars, famines and viruses.

Many high ranking militaries would probably much rather do good things rather than killing innocent men, women and children like they are doing now in Irak.

If they don't change their ways they will be portrayed as war criminals in the history books.

He suggests that if they want something constructive to do why don't they go and terraform Mars-or some thing.

Fulford gives this suggestion to the Shadow Government.

"There's no need to be afraid of peace"

Georgia guidestones

For a long time it has been the Shadow Governments plan to disseminate the human population with at least 80%.

Many documents and reports supporting this have gotten out to the public, like for example "the global 2000 report", but the Shadow Government hasn't exactly been shy about their plans, they are rather proud of their plans and they have even carved their intentions on stone for anybody to see on the Georgia Guide stones.

Fulford says he is hopeful when it comes to the general public, people are angry, he says and many people are starting to realize that there is something that really isn't right, most people can not pinpoint specifically what the problem is, but the mere fact that so many are starting to see that it is "something really wrong" is a very important step.

The human Will power can literally move mountains if used correctly.

It is how we use our will that define us.

Unfortunately the will lies dormant in most humans.

Many people are not aware of how powerful their wills are and how much they could achieve with it.

Since many people are burdened with negative thoughts and emotions, like fear, guilt, shame, and anger etc they feel themselves as victims of circumstances and they lose the connection with their will power.

If people would free themselves from these limiting negative thoughts and emotions and re-connect themselves to their will power no shadow Government in the world could control us.

Since they are so few and we are so many it would be relatively easy to break free if people only start to wake up and using their wills.

An awakening in the collective consciousness are definitely taking place in this regard otherwise the book and film "the Secret" would not have reached such a wide resonance and appreciation. If sufficiently many people would free themselves from victim identity then we could CREATE with our WILLS the world we want to live in.
